G O A

Goa which was liberated on 19th December, 1961 along with Daman & Diu from 451 years Portuguese Colonial Rule, became the 25th State of the Indian Union when it was conferred Statehood on 30th May, 1987.

The State of Goa has a Legislative Assembly with strength of 40 elected members. Besides, Goa has three elected representatives in the Central Parliament. The Governor is the Head of the State and is advised by a Council of Ministers headed by the Chief Minister. Panaji, capital of the state is a small picturesque town on the left bank of river Mandovi. However, for administrative purposes, the State has been divided into two districts: North Goa and South Goa with headquarters at Panaji and Margao respectively, and six divisions comprising 12 Talukas.

Goa, a tiny emerald land on the west coast of India, with its natural scenic beauty, abundant greenery, attractive beaches and temples & churches with distinctive style of architecture, colourful and lively feasts and festivals and, above all, hospitable people with a rich cultural milieu, has an ideal tourist profile

Ensnconced on the slopes of the Western Ghats (Sahyadri ranges) Goa is bounded on the North by Sindhudurg district of Maharashtra, on the East by Belgaum, on the South by Karwar district of Karnataka and on the West by Arabian Sea. Its rivers, Tiracol, Chapora, Mandovi, Zuari, Sal and Talpona, which are navigable throughout the year, have their origin in the Sahyadri ranges and flow westward into the Arabian Sea, 60 kms. away, breaking the long coastline covering a length of 105 kms. into enchanting estuaries and bays which mark off idyllic palm-fringed beaches like Arambol, Vagator, Anjuna, Baga and Calangute in North Goa and Colva, Betul and Palolem in South Goa.

Although Goa joined the national mainstream only after 14 years of the country's independence, tourist traffic to Goa registered such phenomenal growth that from 2.00 lakhs tourists in 1975 the figure has shot up to 31.21 lakhs in 2013 of which domestic tourists comprise 26.29 lakhs and foreigners account for 4.92 lakhs.

Conscious of preservation and conservation of environment, ecology and architecture, the State Government had decided that no construction or development shall be permitted on the sandy stretches within 200 meters of High Tide Line in general. Further, such development is subject to the restrictions laid down by the Government of India under the Environment Protection Act and Regulations.

Government is also determined to ensure the safety and security of tourists on the beaches of Goa. As such Government has engaged the services of M/s. Drishti Lifesaving Pvt. Ltd., to undertake the work of development, deployment, management and operations of a water safety patrol with "State of Art" facilities in the coastal waters of State of Goa. Government has deputed the IRB personnel since beginning of Tourist Season 2012 on the beaches of the state of Goa. The deputation has been done with a purpose of maintaining law and order on the beaches of the State, keep vigil/check on any sort of illegalities taking place on such touristic places and assist tourist visiting the beaches of the State. Also there are Tourist Security Force comprising of Ex-servicemen in order to promote additional protection and guidance to the tourists visiting the State.

White Water Rafting:

GTDC has tied up with Southern Adventures Pvt.Ltd in order to introduce White water rafting in Goa. The operations are conducted during the monsoon season (June to October) in Goa and this is the perfect time to soak in the refreshing rain and ride the waves of the gorgeously moody Mhadei River. If someone wants to experience this adventure sport has to arrive at "The Earthen Pot Restaurant, Sayed Nagar, Valpoi, Sattari, Goa. Trips are conducted twice during the day (arrive by 9.30 AM for a prompt departure for 10.00 AM tour and arrive by 2.30 PM for a prompt departure for 3.00 PM tour).

ITINERARY:

If Rafting is what you want to inaugurate your day with, then the first trip at 9:30 am awaits you! And if you are a late riser or prefer to have an afternoon trip with the alluring Mhadei River, then the second trip at 2:30 pm, will be a perfect choice. Both trips run for 10 km each, stirring and elating you, along the breath-taking landscape!

Here is a sneak peek into the trip Itinerary:

Meeting point: Arrive at The Earthen Pot Restaurant, Valpoi Town

Depart from the meeting point in Minivans: Board the appointed Minivans and take the path to the mystic Mhadei River! Just relax, chat a little or introspect during this 25 min drive to the river.

Get to River's Start Point: Enjoy a 10 min walk down the river, to the start point.

Training and Preparation: Get hands-on and be all ears, while getting briefed by the river guides and fitting the equipment that will ensure a safe and memorable ride down the river!

Rafting on The River Mhadei: Listen carefully to the essential safety talk and then experience one of the best Rafting trips in Peninsular India. 10 km of stunning scenery and powerful rapids complement the feelings this trip gives you Return: Time to part with the amiable Raft and bid farewell to the never forgettable Mhadei! Board the Minivans and get back to the Meeting Point – 'The Earthen Pot Restaurant'. Replenish your weary body (and lifted soul!) with some authentic Goan delicacies or relax at home revering newfound memories!

CULTURAL HERITAGE OF GOA

Goa abounds in festivals and fairs around temples and churches which also commemorate early legends. They are the occasions when a Goan peasant manifests joy and happiness.

1. Bhandap : A traditional folk dance performed by the women folk of the scheduled tribe community who were the earliest settlers of Goa, in the second half of the Hindu month Bhadrapada.
2. Corredinho-Portuguese folk dance : A peasant dance which is popular among Goan elite youth.
3. Dekhni-Beauty dance : Performed only by women, displays a rare blend of Indian & Western rhythms.
4. Dhangar Dance : In Navratra days, a vigorous session of worship dance.

5. Fugdi & Dhalo : Folk dance performed by women. The most common folk dance forms of Goa.
6. Ghode Modni : It is in commemoration of the return of the Ranes after victories over the Portuguese in Bicholim and Satari Taluka.
7. Goff-folk dance with chords : Manifests joy and happiness of Goan peasants after the harvest, during Shigmo Festival in Phalgum month.
8. Hanpet-Sword Dance : A traditional warrior dance performed during the Shigmo Festival.
9. Kala & Dashavtar : Folk dance forms representing the subsequent development of jagar as tiatr. Some of the other popular folk drama forms are Ranmale, Ratkala and Tiatr.
10. Kunbi Dance : Tribal folk dance : A group dance-cum-song thoroughly rustic.
11. Lamp Dance : Performed during Shigmo Festival by women holding lamps on their heads.
12. Mando : A love song. It represents the mingling of Indian and Western tradition.
13. Morulem : A traditional folk dance presented by the backward community during Shigmo Festival.
14. Mussal-Khel-Pestel Dance : A dance-cum-song in praise of valiant Kings. It also projects incidents in the village life of the times, Romat, Tonya Mel and Dhendlo are some other folk dance forms.
15. Perani Jagar : The earliest form of drama.
16. Raatib : Part of religion ritual of Muslim community performed during 11th month of the Muslim calendar.

It is celebrated in February/March. Decorated floats led by King Momo as the Lead Float parade through the main roads of major cities and is attended by thousands of people/tourists.
2. Shigmo: Like Carnival Shigmo is the spring festival. Holi which is also known as Shigmostav is essentially a festival of the masses. In Goa and Konkan, it is popularly known as Shigmo. It is a feast of folk dances and music in all places of Goa. Shigmo is celebrated in Phalgun (Feb-March) the last month of Hindu Calendar. Besides Traditional celebrations all over Goa, Float parades depicting various scenes of mythology through main roads are also held at almost all talukas of Goa.
3. Bonderam : Celebrated on 4th Saturday of August at Diwar Island. The village of Comunidade of Goltim [Diwar near Old Goa] observes the feast of harvest on the last Saturday of August preceding the feast, villagers, hold the Bonderam Festival, which is a procession with different types of colourful flags going around the boundaries of the village. The villagers have a mock battle with 'Fatass" [toy pistol] made of hollow bamboo stem as if they are on the battle front. Festival is financially supported by the Department of Tourism.

PLACES OF INTEREST

(The distances given are from Panaji, unless otherwise specified)

TOWNS

Panaji : The capital of Goa and headquarters of North Goa District, a small and charming city on the left bank of silvery Mandovi River, with beautiful red-roofed houses, built in Latin style, also boasts of many modern houses, well laid gardens, statues and avenues lined with Gulmohar, Acassia and other trees. Enchanting panorama unfolds from atop Altinho (Hill Top).

Margao : 33 kms. The Capital of South Goa District in the hinterland of Southern Goa in Salcete Taluka is a thriving commercial metropolis linked by rail to the rest of India & Mormugao Harbour and by National Highways, with Maharashtra and Karnataka. It has imposing old mansions and modern buildings.

Vasco-da-Gama : 30 kms. A modern, well laid out city close to Mormugao Harbour, has beautiful and extensive avenues. The air terminus of Goa at Dabolim lies on the outskirts of the city. It is also the railway terminus for passenger service on the South Central Railway.

Mapusa : 12 kms. The capital of Bardez Taluka, on the National Highway, is at the cross roads of the network of highways covering whole of North Goa. Weekly fair on Friday is held at the modern streamline market, attended by large crowds.

Mormugao Harbour : 34 kms. (4 kms. from Vasco-da-Gama) is one of the finest natural anchorages on the West coast of India and the hub of intense maritime activity.

Pilar : 11 kms. Important religious and educational centre of Christian Missionaries. The Church, Seminary and School atop hillock command a magnificent panorama of the countryside around and a fine view of Mormugao Harbour & Zuari river.

Chandor (Chandar): 9 kms. East of Margao the Menezes Braganza House, mostly late 18th Century and previously owned by Lemon nationalist and Journalist Luis De Menezes Braganza has a series of magnificent rooms especially the great salon with its fine furniture and the largest private library in Goa.

Shree Gopal Ganapati : 26 kms. from Panaji at Farmagudi, Ponda, amidst beautiful natural surroundings, near Bandora. The Portuguese Viceroy attacked the fort of Ponda in October, 1683 but had to beat a hasty retreat at the sudden appearance of the Maratha King Sambhaji with a large army. Farmagudi commemorates this event. The stone image of Gopal Ganapati was discovered by herdsmen while grazing cattle near the hill and later installed in a small shrine with a thatched roof . The temple built by late Shri Dayanand Bandodkar, the first Chief Minister of Goa had the idol, made of metal alloy, consecrated on April 24, 1966. It is a good specimen of Indian temple architecture synthesizing both ancient and modern.

Shree Kalikadevi : 14 kms. from Mapusa at Kansarpal. It is said to be about hundred years old. Divided into outer halls, supported with seven rows of four pillars, has a stage to perform dramas on festive occasion. The inner shrine contains the reserved image of Goddess ‘Kali’ a fierce form of Devi. Agrashalas (rest house) surrounding the temple provide facilities for lodging to the devotees.

Shree Kamakshi Saunsthana Shiroda : 40 kms. from Panaji. According to mythology, Shree Kamakshi, was brought from kaurang (Kanchi).

Shree Lairai Temple: The temple of Shree Lairai is situated at Sirigao about 2 kms. from Panaji-Valpoi Highway. The temple is unique in North Goa, the combination of northern and southern art and design of temples have been applied in constructing the temple. It is one of the attraction to the tourists visiting holy places, temples in Goa.

Shree Lairai Saunsthana of Sirigao, Goa is one of the oldest and most famous Devasthans in Goa. The deity Lairai is famous all over Goa, Maharashtra and Karnataka , for her unique “HOMAKUND”. Every year thousands of devotees attend annual feast of deity to witness the walking of ‘DHOND’ through sacred fire called “HOMAKUND”.

Temple of Shree Mahadev at Tambdi Surla : 66 kms. from Panaji in Sanguem Taluka at the foot of the Ghats, is the only specimen of Kadamba-Yadava architecture (13th century) in basalt stone preserved and available in Goa. A motorable road connects Sancordem to this temple complex.

Shree Mahadeo Bhumika at Sal, Bicholim : Situated at a distance of 25 kms from Mapusa, temple complex has beautiful natural surroundings. The three day festival of 'Gades' which begins on Phalgun Purnima draws big crowds. The devotees believe that people can have the darshan of 'Devchars' during the Gade festival.

Shree Mahadev temple: It is situated in Sanguem Taluka of Goa. it has a rich legacy and pre Portuguese history and heritage situated at a distance of 74 Kms. from Panaji.

The temple dates back to the pre historic times 10th or 11th century A.D.. The temple is very close to the Selaulim Dam site at Shelpem Selaulim.

The Mahadev temple is of laterite exteriors and basalt interiors. It has no Sabhamadap but a vestibule (antarala) and a garbhakud both decorated in basalt carvings depicting typical Kadamba motifs. The temple has a cave style structure. In the central bay of the vestibule is the traditional "Nandi" vehicle of Shiva made of basalt. The temple is in typical kadamba style motifs: lozenges, creepers, lotus bud, etc.

This temple was shifted/transplanted from its original site at Kurdi 17 Kms. away, to the present site as the temple was getting submerged due to the dam project.

This is the first laterite stone monument in the world and the second monument in the country to be relocated.

Shri Madanant temple: Situated in Savoi Verem. 12 Kms. from Ponda and 30 Kms. from Panaji, is surrounded by hills and fields, beetal nut farm, coconut and cashew trees. The God, Shree Vishnu is lying on the Sheshyasan. Shree Laxmi is sitting at the feet of Lord Vishnu. The temple is surrounded by water and it is 500 years old.

To the south there is a small rivulet whose waters used by the people for bathing are believed to be medicinal. To the West the land slopes away and a meandering pathway used by the villagers can be seen. To the East are the quaint houses of the villagers set amidst beautiful trees.

During the month of August (Shravan) the temple is being illuminated and beautifully decorated and also Singing Competition is being organised.

In the year 1970, during the time of desilting the pond at Madel, which is attached to the temple 4 statues were found of God namely : (1) Ganapati (2) Mahishasur Mardani and some others.

Shree Mahalsa : At Mardol. 1 km. from Shri Mangueshi temple. The deity worshipped is an attribute of Vishnu (Mohini during the fight between Devas and Asuras). Main festivals : Zatra (February) and Navaratra.

Shree Mahalaxmi : situated in the village of Bandode, about 4 kms. from Ponda. It is considered the abode of the original Goddess of the Shakti cult. The Sabhamandap has a gallery of 18 images, out of 24 images of emanatory aspects of Bhagvata sect, which is considered one of the few galleries of wooden images of Vishnu in India. The image of Mahalakshmi has a close resemblance to that of Mahalakshmi at Kolhapur, the main centre of worship. Her special feature is that she wears a linga on her head and is considered a peaceful or Satvik form of the Devi. The Goddess Mahalakshmi was worshipped by the Shilahara rulers (750 – 1030 A.D.) and the early Kadamba Kings of Goa.

Shri Maharudra Amrekarnath temple: Situated near the Chogam Road at Saulem Pilerne. 5 kms from Panjim and 7 kms from Mapusa. The temple deity here is Lord Shiva. The temple is beautifully and aesthetically designed. The festival of Mahashivaratri held in the month of February/ March draws big crowds. The temple attracts many tourists for its scenic beauty.

Shree Mallikarjun : 40 kms. from Margao at Canacona, the southernmost Taluka of Goa, is believed to have been constructed during the middle of 16th century by ancestors of the Kshatriya Samaj. It was renovated in the year 1778. The temple has massive wooden pillars with intricate carvings. There are 60 deities around the temple, Rathasaptami in February and Shigmotsav in March/April are the festivals of note, which draw large crowds.

Shree Manguesh : 22 kms. from Panaji (26 kms. from Margao) at Priol-Ponda Taluka . It is located on a hillock surrounded by lush green hills. Though small it has an air of distinctive elegance. Its lofty white tower at the entrance is a landmark of the country-side. This is a temple dedicated to Lord Shiva.

Shree Morjaee Temple at Morjim : Situated at Morjim in Pernem Taluka this ancient historical temple complex is situated amidst natural surroundings. The main festival is “Kalas Utsav” which is celebrated once in every three, five, seven or nine years. The duration of the festival is nearly a month beginning from Phalgun Shuddha Panchami. The concluding seven days is a big religious and cultural affair when people not only from Goa but from Sindhudurg to Karwar assemble in large number. Other festivals are Gudi Padwa, Dussehra, annual Zatra, “divzam” and ghodemodni.

Shree Naguesh : Dedicated to Lord Shiva, is situated in the village of Bandora , about 4 kms. to the east of Ponda. The temple Sabhamandap has a gallery on both sides that contains exquisite specimen of intricate wood carvings of the event of Ramayana on one side and wooden images of Astadikpal and Gandharva on the other.

Shree Navdurga Saunsthan : 34 kms. from Panaji at Borim (12 kms. from Margao) the deity of Goddess Navdurga was originally brought by Brahmins of Karad to Goa. The deity was later transferred from Benaolim in Salcete to its present site at Borim.

Shree Navdurga at Madkai : 28 kms. from Panaji. The annual zatra is in November.

Shree Ramnath : 33 kms. from Panaji in Ponda Taluka. Besides the shrine of the main Ramnath deity it has four small temples of Shri Laxminarayan, Shree Shantadurga (Sateri), Shri Betal and Shree Sidhanath. The five together, constitute Shri Ramnath Panchayatan. The legend in mythology says that Rameshwar is the original abode of Lord Ramnath.

Shree Rudreshwar Temple at Harvalem : Located in Bicholim Taluka at a distance of 45 kms. from Panaji the temple of Rudreshwar is half a km. away from the rock-cut caves of Harvalem where the ancient linga of Rudreshwar is venerated. The idyllic Harvalem waterfalls is close by. The image of Rudreshwar is facing the waterfall. The festival of Mahashivaratri draws big crowds. However, the temple assumes importance as Hindus perform rites for the dead here.

Shree Saptakoteswar : 37 kms. from Panaji at Narve-Bicholim, was a favoured deity of Kadamba Kings. Its original temple was situated in the island of Diwar. It was destroyed by the Portuguese and the idol was shifted to its present site at Narve (Bicholim). Many years afterwards in 1668 A.D. Chhatrapati Shivaji ordered renovation of this temple at the present site during one of his campaigns to oust the Portuguese. The linga worshipped in this temple is faceted and is known as 'Dharalinga'.

Shree Sapteshwar-Bhagvati Temple at Mandrem : Situated 17 kms. from Mapusa in Pernem Taluka, the complex has five temples, main temples being of Shree Sapteshwar and Bhagavati. Other temples, are Narayan, Ravalnath and Satpurush. Dassehra, Zatra, Bhajani Saptah are the main festivals. The temples were renovated some years ago.

Shree Saunsthan Gokarn Partagali Jeevotam Math : Located at Partagali Village on the banks of the sacred rivulet Kushavati, this math established by Shreemad Narayanateertha Swamiji in the year 1475 A.D. has an uninterrupted tradition of 23 Swamijis. This is an ancient Math of the Gaud Saraswat Brahmin Vaishnav Community which maintained contact with the scattered members of the community. The symbol representing the spiritual movement carried on by the Math for over 500 years is one of the few huge ancient 'vatavriksha' (Banyan tree) which is about 200 ft. x 225ft. and is considered a Tapasya Kshetra for over a thousand years. Vatavriksha and the Ishwar linga in front of it are worshipped by the people of Partagali and adjoining area. This place is popularly known as Bramhasthan. Partagali is being developed into a centre of culture and learning, without in any way tampering with its glorious traditions.

Shree Saunsthan Goudpadacharya Kavle Math : This Math is a brilliant heritage of Goud Saraswat Smarth Community with branches all over India. This Math situated at Kavalem, in Ponda Taluka is named after historic seer and exponent of the Adwaita system of Vedanta. The Math was shifted from Cortalim in the year 1630 during the inquisition period and re-established by Shrimad Satchidanand Saraswati Swamiji.

Shree Shantadurga : 33 kms. and 3 km. From Mangueshi Temple at post Mardol, Ponda -Goa. Sumptuously built at Kavlem, is dedicated to Shantadurga, the Goddess who mediates between Vishnu and Shiva. Has a rich and beautiful Garbhakuda or the holy of holies where the deity is kept. The deity was shifted from Kelsi. Agrashalas provide lodging facilities to the devotees.

Shree Shantadurga: 14 kms. from Mapusa at Dhargal, Pernem. When all the temples in Bardez were destroyed by the Portuguese, this Goddess was removed at Sanquelim. It was at the time of the notorious Portuguese inquisition in Goa. Therefore, in 1550 A.D. this Goddess was taken to Dhargal in Pernem Taluka which also formed part of Sawantwadi principality. The 'Zatra' of this Goddess is held in the month of December. The temple has beautiful natural surroundings.

Shree Shantadurga (Kunkolienkarin): 18 kms. from Margao, at Fatorpa (Quepem). Originally from Cuncolim village in Salcete Taluka, the Goddess was removed to Fatorpa in 16th century during religious persecution by the Portuguese. The annual Zatra, which falls in the month of Pausha Shuddha Navami, attracts thousands of devotees from all over Goa. Tel. No. 2670005 & 2670864

Shree Shantadurga (Sangodkarin) Temple, Sangolda: The temple is situated at Sangolda, in Bardez Taluka about 7 kms. from Panaji and 5 Kms. from Mapusa. The temple deity here is Shantadurga, one of the forms of goddess Durga. The deity is originally from Sangolda and was moved to Bicholim to avoid the Portuguese destruction in the early days of its rule. The present temple at Sangolda was constructed in the year 2000 and original idol was installed in the temple on 07.02.2000. The annual Jatra is celebrated here is in the month of November / December every year. Other festivals celebrated in the temple are Navratra, Maha Shivratri, Ganesh Jayanti, besides monthly Palakhi.

Shree Kshetra Tapobhoomi, Kundaim, Ponda, Goa: Today P.P. Shree Padmanabh Shishya Sampradaya is a great boon for the people of this mortal world to become free from the cycle of repeated birth and death. The Sampradaya integrates religious, cultural & traditional lifestyles of devotion and valuable service with the practice of yoga, sanskrit, jyotish, vedas and upasana. The Shree Kshetra Tapobhoomi at Ponda is serving the people in the various fields such as spiritual, education, culture and social through its wide network of devotees and affiliated organisation.

Tapobhoomi : Born under the divine inspiration of his Holiness Haturli Mathadhish Shrimad Brahmanand Swamiji. The Tapobhoomi Complex at Kundaim has now become a centre of pilgrimage to the students of Hindu culture and religion, spread over an area of 10,000 sq.mts. This centre of Param Pujya Padmanabh Shishya Sampradaya harbours a number of projects, a unique Datta Mandir, Sanskrit pathshala, Dhyaan Gumfa (Chamber for meditation), Ayurveda Centre, Yoga Anusandhan Kendra, Bhajani Vidyalaya, Bhaktoddhar Library, etc.

Shree Vasudevanand Saraswati Datta Mandir: The temple is located at Ambirna ward of Socorro village 1½ Km. from the N.H.17 and 7 Kms. from Mapusa and Panaji city.

This is a unique temple in whole of Goa. The temple house two deities. One idol of Swami Vasudevanand Saraswati, popularly known as Tembe Swami, which is only temple in Goa. The chief deity of the temple is Lord Dattatreya along with Panchayatan on the 1st floor of the temple and on the ground floor there is a temple of Goddess Bhuvaneshwari. There is special Maha Aarati on every Thursday at 7.30 p.m..

Shree Vithal Mandir : 41 kms. from Panaji situated at Vithalwadi, Sanquelim, Shri Vitthal is the ancestral God of 'Ranes' who had put up prolonged memorable resistance to Portuguese rule. The main festival is Chaitri (April). Its celebration is a lavish affair for the people miles around.

Shree Siddhanath Partvat: The Siddhanath Parvat at Shirshire, Borim is the highest mountain in Ponda Taluka and is located at such a place from where the scenic beauty of the Shiroda village as well as Ponda town could be viewed.

MOSQUES :

Jama Masjid : 26 kms. from Margao at Sanguem. Built in the last century, the Jama Masjid was completely renovated in 1959. The new structure is remarkable for its harmonious proportions and elegant simplicity. It has four minarets whilst the entrance façade is flanked by two elegant towers surmounted by pillared kiosks. A domeshaped kiosk rises in the centre of the minarets. Festivals are celebrated here with due solemnity by the rejoicing devotees.

Safa Masjid at Ponda : The Shahouri Masjid in Ponda Taluka, the biggest and most famous of the Mosques, was built in 1560 by Ibrahim Adilshah of Bijapur. Adjacent to the Mosque is a well-constructed masonry tank with small chambers with 'meharab' designs. The Mosque and the tank were formerly surrounded by an extensive garden with many fountains. The two major festivals Id-UI-Fitr and Id-UI-Zuha are celebrated at this mosque with great pomp and are attended by a large number of people.

OTHER ECO TOURISTIC PLACES :

Arvalem Caves : The celebrated caves of Arvalem, belonging to a remote era, are in a westerly direction not far away from the temple of Rudreshwar and are of archaeological interest. A mythical background is attached to these caves. Some are of the opinion that these caves have been carved by the travelling Buddhist monks. An inscription is noticed on a Shivalinga with a circular top in cave No. 2. It is in Sanskrit and in Brahmi characters of the 7th century A.D. It reads as Sambalura-vasi Ravih.

Arvalem Waterfalls : Leaving the temple of Rudreshwar, one can descend the staircase to look at a majestic waterfall shedding its exuberant silvery showers. The beautiful fall, with a head of about 70 ft., forms a sizeable lake at the bottom. The fall is best seen when in full flux, just after the monsoons.

Carambolim lake – Adding to the charm of the quiet village of Carambolim is the scenic reservoir fringed by lush greenery. Migratory birds seek this verdant landscape every year to frolic in the natural splendor till the end of the season. The cacophony of 80 different varieties of birds is unbelievable, tending to their young in the mixed heronries on the aquatic vegetation. Jacanas with their iridescent colours and the spectacular purple moorhens can be seen delicately treading over the floating vegetation.

Cumbarjua Canal – 15 km. stretch of water, links Zuari with the Mandovi river, a vibrant mangrove habitat, home for fresh water or marsh crocodile and migratory birds. Boat cruise packages are being thoughtfully designed by enthusiastic people to give visitors a most memorable experience. The enchanting journey will take through the river to the picturesque back waters.

Dudhsagar Waterfalls : 60 kms. (10 kms. from Colem Railway Station). Water plummets hundreds of feet in large volume, in cascades, forming one of the most spectacular of all natural phenomena in Goa and a life line of our ecosystem in one of our Sanctuaries. A popular destination to hikers and trekkers. It is also accessible by jeepable (4 wheel drive) route (14 kms) through the Bhagvan Mahavir Sanctuary. However, one needs to obtain permission in advance from the Department of Forests at Junta House, Panaji.

Kesarval Spring : (22 kms) The spring emerges from hard and compact rocks and people bathe in its water with strong belief that it has medicinal properties.

Mayem Lake : 35 kms. surrounded amidst rolling green hills is an ideal picnic spot. Good accommodation facilities are available in Cottages. Boating is available on the lake.

Sacred groves : located at Bambar in Satari Taluka is the abode of rare medicinal plants refuge for a unique forest – classified as Myristica Swamp Forest having great ecological significance. This grove is known to exist for the last 250 year and the reigning deity is the God “Nirankar” one of the unique feature of the trees in this habitat is the presence of numerous aerial roots in the shape of “U” arching over the mud.

Turtle Nesting Sites – Morjim, Galgibag and Agonda beaches – the largest nesting places of the giant olive ridley turtle. An amazing phenomena of nature, this is a regular annual occurrence since 1997-98. While earlier it was hunting ground for sea turtles, today it is a modal conservation centre for turtles.

Satpal arboratum – Established in 1972, is about 3 kms from Mollem. A number of research plots have been laid here. The Arboratum is ideally suited to meet the requirement of students for their field studies.

Netravalli lake – This lake in Sanguem Taluka has unique characteristics; there are continuous bubbles emerging on the lake surface, and upon clapping the intensity of the bubbles grow, with live springs, which suddenly glushes out in full spectacle.

Selaulim dam – The monochromatic landscape, its silent, serene splendour beckons the traveler to relax secured in the secluded warmth of nature. A quaint picnic spot ideal for a languorous break is an exhilarating experience. Driving to these places with your own vehicle will be always an exhilarating and memorable experience.

It is strongly recommend to have one'e transport or a hired vehicle throughout the day to avoid problems & wastage of time.

Fernandes House: Fernandes house in Chandor village is one of the oldest remaining palacios in Goa. Occupied by Sara Fernandes and her son Rajeev. The house has a decided air of elegance. The original house, which exhibits a Hindu influence, was built some 500 years ago. The portuguese influence is noticeable in the portion of the house constructed in 1821 by the Fernandes family. There is a salon on the first floor of the building that is used for receiving guests. What distinguishes this house from others is its occupants to escape in case of an attack. Call: 2784245 for a guided tour on the house.

Braganza House: Located in Chandor Village, Braganza House was built in the 17th century. This huge house is situated on one side of the village square. It has now separate houses, with a common entrance.

The east wing occupied by the Pereira-Braganza family, has a small chapel with a relics of St. Francis Xavier, which is a fingernail. The artefacts collected by the family over a number of years, have added to the beauty of the house. There is a Great Salon, a big ballroom with the floor made of italian marble antique chandelier from Europe adorning the ceiling, and heavily carved, ornate rodewood furniture. What stands out among the furniture is a pair of high-backed chairs, bearing the family crest, which was given to the Pereira – Braganza family by King Dom Luis of Portugal. Most of the furniture dates back to the 18th Century and is made from local seeso (martel wood), lacquered or inlaid with mother of pearl by craftsman from Curtorim Village. For antique aficionados, the house holds many delightful finds. Call: 2784227

The west wing of the house belongs to the Menezes Braganza family. Apart from its exquisite furniture and Chinese porcelain from Macau, it also houses a collection of family portraits, dating back to the 17th and 18th centuries. The library is believed to be the first private library in Goa .It has almost 5,000 leather bound books collected by Luis de Menezes Braganza (1878-1938), a reputed journalist, renowned for the part he played in Goa's independent movement. Call: 2784201

Museum Houses of Goa – The Museum ‘Houses of Goa’ is build as a traffic island in Torda, Salvador do Mundo, Goa. Strangely enough it is in the shape of triangle and resembles a ship. Looking from outside it is a mystery, but as you begin your visit, it slowly unfolds its charms. Tel: 0832-2410711/15/16.

Solar de Souto Maior – The Heritage House “Solar de Souto Maior” is the only residential palace of the Old Goa UNESCO Heritage complex situated at Ribandar.

The house has been restored and its beautiful gardens well arranged overlooking the river Mandovi. The main aim is to welcome tourists to see the restored house, which houses an art centre and gallery, tea rooms with exclusive Indian teas, boutiques, outdoor amphitheater for events, an orchid garden with 5000 orchids of different varieties and other appealing features where tourists will be free to stop for lunch and refreshments.

Rock-Art Pansaimol: is located in Sanguem of South Goa district about 72 kms. from Panaji via Margao, Quepem, Tilamol, on the right bank of River Kushavati .

The discovery of rare Stone Age rock carvings at Kajur, Pansaimol of Pirla village in Sanguem Taluka and Mauxi in Sattari Taluka has brought Goa on the map of Rock Art in India. It has opened new vistas and thrown up new challenges to the historians and archaeologists. The Directorate of Museum has created a model of this entire site of Pansaimol in the premises of State Museum of Goa.

This exciting site totally admeasuring about 5000 sq. mts. lies on the bank of Kushavati river and gets submerged occasionally during monsoon every year. This Rock art is full of carvings, depicting the symbols of fertility cult, religious cosmology, Triskelion, zoo-morphs like Zebu dull, Deer, Gaur, scene of mating animals, large animal hoofs, scenes of chasing the animals, animal in sitting posture, Bison with wound marks, X-ray type animals, etc. as well as a figure of labyrinth and figures of Mother and Child. The art provides an insight into a section of the faunal world of the region and popular beliefs of the community for their prosperity and fertility of their progeny.

The dancing figure of a female as well as newly delivered child there alongwith placenta attract the attention of the visitors the most.

Cuisines: Goan cuisine consists of regional foods popular in Goa, an Indian state located along India's west coast on the shore of the Arabian Sea. Rice, seafood, coconut, vegetables, meat and local spices are some of the main ingredients in Goan cuisine. Goan food is simple and spicy. Seafood such as prawns, lobsters, crabs, pomfrets, clams, ladyfish, mussels and oysters are used to make a variety of curries, fries, soups and pickles. Besides fresh seafood, dried and salted fish dishes are also highly prized by Goans.

An exotic Goan vegetable stew, known as Khatkhate, is a very popular dish during the celebrations of festivals, Hindu. Khatkhate contains at least five vegetables, fresh coconut, and special Goan spices that add to the aroma. A rich egg-based multi-layered sweet dish known as bebinca is a favourite at Christmas. The most popular alcoholic beverage in Goa is feni. Cashew feni is made from the fermentation of the fruit of the cashew tree, while coconut feni is made from the sap of toddy palms.
